

Ransomware Prevention Checklist

- All devices using the internet are protected with anti-virus and/or security software.
- All protection software is continuously updated with latest patches.
- Educate employees on how their actions can help prevent successful attacks.
- Have a reliable disaster recovery/backup system in place.
- Partner with a reliable third party provider who specializes in data security - like NetSmart Plus. Have them analyze your network for weaknesses.