United Shore Professional Baseball League

Customer Challenge

The United Shore Professional Baseball League (USPBL) is an independent baseball league based in Utica, Michigan. The USPBL offers a unique fan experience with games held from Thursday to Sunday, featuring high-caliber players scouted by major league teams. The league needed a technology partner that understood the complexities of event marketing and the demands of their dynamic sporting environment. Reliable office technology was crucial to maintaining the league’s promises and delivering a consistent, high-quality experience for fans and staff.

Applied Solutions

Applied addressed USPBL’s needs by providing a comprehensive suite of printing solutions, including printers, multifunction printers, and high-speed color printers. These devices were essential for handling the demands of game days, with up to 500 employees relying on them for printing food and beverage orders, menus, inventory sheets, and team rosters. Applied prioritized preventative maintenance and ensured support technicians were available before and during games to maintain operational efficiency and address any issues promptly.
